ARTIST
SUSAN LORDI

Susan Lordi's art reflects our relationships with people and the world around us. Her keen observation of the human form is further inspired by dance, art history, nature, and personal experiences with family and friends. These influences are revealed in her Willow Tree® sculptures, from which emotion is communicated through gestures only.

Besides her work in sculpture, Susan has spent years making art with cloth. She has a Master of Fine Arts in Textile Design, and her fiber art has been exhibited internationally. A monograph of her art textiles has been published in the Portfolio Collection by Telos Art Publishing and she is featured in the book Art Textiles of the World: USA. Susan maintains a studio in Kansas City, Missouri.

FIGURES RELATIONSHIPS

'Family Groupings are most engaging when the pieces appear to be interacting, turned toward one another, touching, like families do. It's the little things that we pick up on, the small gestures that are unique to each person. That's what we see in those we love.'

Customers' most frequent requests are for pieces that reflect their families. By following these four basic steps, you can help customers create groupings unique to them.

1. Start with a Parent piece

2. Add children

3. Turn pieces toward each other

4. Add pieces as the family grows

ART ♥ HEARTS

Art Hearts is a collection of heart sculptures from DEMDACO that takes the success of the iconic 'heart' and pairs it with the cool factor of being able to select just the right, uniquely 'you' heart design. Each heart features a colourful illustration from a popular artist in the gift industry, expressing sentiments of love, friendship, celebration, and thoughtfulness in the artist's one-of-a-kind style. The hearts are designed to either hang or stand using the ornamental key included. Art Hearts are the perfect gift to give again, and again.
